Recommendation Letter from Employer for Scholarship

To Whom It May Concern

I have supervised Ashley Pembroke's for 3 years while she worked as a Project Officer at Providence Environmental Care. I wish to recommend her for the Charles Wallace Scholarship Program as I believe that this will help her pursue her dream of studying for a degree in Environmental Sciences and Wildlife.

Ashley is one of the most brilliant project officers at our organization. Recently, she reined in freeing the prisoned Bali dolphins through sheer will and her passion for nature conservation. I believe that if she has a higher degree in environmental sciences and wildlife, she will be able to contribute to the wellbeing of our planet and its ecology.

As a hardworking individual, Ashley has always come out on top. She is fascinated with the smallest of wonders which shows her strong character and is extremely easy to get along with. To sum it up, I believe that she is a deserving candidate for the Charles Wallace Scholarship – it will be money well-spent.

Please feel free to contact me if you need any further information regarding Ashley's suitability for the program.

Sincerely,

Mgt Peck

RE: Scholarship Application

Dear Ms. Fischer:

I am writing to submit my application for a scholarship from Edu-Tech University's Financial Aid Program for the fall semester 2014. Presently, I am a first year student in the Master of Computer Science program. Attached is a copy of my first semester's results for your approval. I am also attaching a copy of my high school grades to verify my diligence in my studies.

I am currently dealing with some financial difficulties, and am unable to pay my fees for the fall semester. I have designs to obtain a part-time position in order to finance my studies, but it will likely not be enough to cover the whole tuition and accommodation fee in addition to my normal living expenses. Based on my financial situation, I am requesting a student scholarship so that I would be able to carry on with my studies while I work to better my circumstances.

Thank you for your consideration. If you require any further information regarding my application, you may contact me anytime at (555) 555-0149. I will contact your secretary to follow up with you in the coming week.

Sincerely,

2008 NASC Student Leader Program Award Application

Sample of Adviser Letter of Recommendation:

Date

National Association of Student Councils
c/o NASC Student Leaders Program
1904 Association Drive
Reston VA 20191

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing today to recommend (STUDENT NAME) as a NASC Student Leader. In addition to his/her meeting the required criteria of the NASC Student Leaders Program, I would like to highlight additional reasons why this student should receive the award. As his/her adviser, I have the pleasure of observing him/her in a variety of circumstances and activities where his/her leadership skills and abilities have consistently shone through.

STUDENT is an outstanding young leader who has made a difference here at SCHOOL, and who is committed to the student council. She juggles the challenges of academics and other activities with student council and applies his/her leadership abilities in whatever she is doing.

In student council, STUDENT is active on two standing committees and is consistently engaged during business meetings. She often reports to help at after school work sessions, even though she is not a regular member of the committee that is meeting. As an example of STUDENT as a strong leader, in September, she noticed a number of freshmen in our building who were behaved in a very timid way in the common areas of the school during lunch or at passing time. She brought his/her concern to the student council and led a committee to create new "eat and greet" activity designed to help freshmen become more comfortable around the older students.

STUDENT is a positive role model in our school and is competent in many ways as a leader. She works diligently each year to reflect to the community the pride and spirit we have here at NAME High School and continually works to improve his/her skills as a leader.

For these and other similar reasons I am recommending STUDENT for the honor of being named an NASC Student Leader.

Sincerely,

Adviser

They are generally tailor-made for students pursuing a specific field of study, such as engineering, mathematics, biology or literary studies. I've become very familiar with him over the last two years as his biology teacher at Oak Ridge High School. I am not aware at first hand of Francescass commitment and talent. I am also familiar with her educational objectives, as well as the challenges she will face when it comes to financing university education. As your ' history attests, Mrs. Williams kept a mean A grade day at all levels during his study here at Fallow High School. As a teacher, it's incredibly gratifying to see a student make this kind of individual and personal progress. Example #1 It was a joy to work with Britbara and I am proud to be able to provide this letter of recommendation for the scholarship program you do not represent. You can't contact me at: (555) 555-5555 or spreston@gmail.com Sincerely, _____ Mrs. Susan Preston This author concludes by expressing his confidence that the high opinion of the candidate will be shared by the person/committee awarding the scholarship. In the example above, a mentor/supervisor uses a convincing example to illustrate the skills of efficiency, initiative, work and leadership of the candidate. The biological ' of tracking and preserving that we do here, we also give tours to classes in primary and secondary schools. Francesca has distinguished herself as an incredible young writer through her work in my classes, as well as in her creative writing and essay in English and Literature. Example #1 I am familiar with the goals of education and career. I know that without financial help she may not be able to fulfill these aspirations. For example, if the first pair states that the student fulfills the each in a particular field of study (e.g. biology, literature), the second pair Accompaniment with examples of the student relevant school work (eg work, tests) or practices. His scholarship is intended to help individuals who have the ambition, the worker, and the most important, leadership skills to stand out in the business. BARD quickly climbed the ladder here in the Publishing of Trafford, exhibiting initiative, reliability, organization and excellent ability to manage your team. During his last year, Jan produced an extraordinary thesis newspaper on creative identity development, in which she compared three weather work and cultural and historical prospects synthesized to inform her analysis. Honestly, Mr. Charles Math Math Professor Charter, Social School Sample 3 April 19, 2017 Helen Bridgeman Professor, A e a, High School 51 Long Street Fallow, CA, 90210 for Oakridge Scholarship Committee: I am writing this letter To recommend Francesca Stevens to the beautiful Williams bag. Most scholarships are granted to students with specific commitments, achievements and goals. By making this affirmation, they are implying that financial aid could only allow the student to intend more and that they are a decent candidate. Your work, as I'm sure you will agree, demonstrates an impressive depth for a young student. The scholarships are often awarded at least partially in the financial need, therefore, it is important to address this point, if possible. By expanding how the student has dealt with a situation, they are capable of concretely illustrating how the candidate is able to bring his many positive attributes at stake when given a challenge. Before writing your letter, the author should also interview the student about any relevant extra-curriculum activities that the candidate is involved or in any case they may have received that the be relevant. However, a scholarship may be based on such performance or the need for financial help. When I'm in charge Performing a class tour, I was immediately impressed by their ability to prepare quickly and efficiently. This example presents a positive assessment of the applicant and expresses their financial needs. Sincerely, Helen Bridgeman what to choose? Letterhead in the top left corner of the page, the author should include the following information: Date of writing Full name School name City, state, postal code Preferred contact (optional) Introduction The introductory paragraph will briefly present the applicant, state the scholarship they are for recommending the applicant and describe the nature and length of the author's relationship with the said candidate. Example #2 for the Jim Norton Memorial Scholarship Committee, I am writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of my student Joe Nagora to recommend you for the Jim Norton Memorial Scholarship. Most of the time, this letter will be written by a teacher, teacher or counselor. Last year she acted as student body president, and this year she took on the main responsibility of organizing the school's annual talent show. In this sample (written by a teacher), the author clearly states his understanding of the scholarship guidelines, lists examples of how the student meets these criteria and expresses his/her qualitative assessment of the student as being a high academic achievement. While he initially described himself as not being a person of mathematics, the Prince found a way to make the subject alive for him in a way that he was personally invested in. I have great respect for Francesca and truly believe that she is a worthy candidate that you will be proud to have represented her college. The author clearly illustrated which scholarship they recommend the student and the length and nature of their As an educator who is committed to helping the deserving students succeed, I Encourage you to consider her for the Linda Williams Scholarship. Sincerely, Mr. Frank Jacobs Sample 2 April 19, 2017 Charles Mingus Professor of Mathematics, Charter High School 333 Rolly Ave Furrtherville, UT, 60210 To the J.D. Smith Memorial Scholarship Committee, I am delighted to recommend Prince Hedges, who I taught in my 11th grade math class, for J.D. Smith Memorial Schhip. Prince helped make our classroom environment an environment where all students can feel supported and able to ask questions. The prince deserves to be able to go to the college of his choice, and this scholarship will allow him to do so. Throughout the year, Jan actively participated in our discussions and always supported his colleagues. It was a pleasure to have him in class, and his positive attitude and belief in himself, even in the face of difficulties, is an immensely admirable asset. He stayed after school for extra help, took extra classes at the nearby college, and asked questions in and out of the classroom. I am confident that he will continue to show the same diligence, perseverance and optimism that he showed to me and his colleagues. I always smile when he says that, because he always found the solution on his own, with only a slight hint of which direction he should be thinking. This paragraph should be about 3 to 5 sentences long. I can be reached at (555) 555-5555 if you have any questions about Barbara's application. Example #2 Jared&e IA's main duties as a Supervisor/Technician have been managing a team of workers, maintaining equipment, and supervising and managing incoming and outgoing shipments of supplies and goods. Personally, I struggle with public speaking, so I was even more impressed by the confidence and precision with which Ivan conducted himself while leading the class around our building. How a counselor counselor School, I have been working closely with her for the last four years and I have developed a great deal of respect for this young girl not visible during that time. Despite having financial difficulties to overcome, she excelled in all the academic fields. Sample April 1, 2017 Frank Jacobs Literature and Professor English Franciscan High School 31 Lewis Street Bridgetown, CA, 90210 Dear Sir/Madam, Write this letter in support of Jan Stewart's request. The prince's strong creed in his ability to acquire new skills and improve through practice was probably shaped by his years as a ' player. Fernanda fits these guidelines perfectly. I had the pleasure of teaching Jan in his English literature class of 11th and 12th Century ©rie at Franciscan High School. While she shows a lot of promise as a well-rounded liberal arts student, there is poetry that interests Jan the most. Prince A© an excellent student and an individual who ' others in and outside the classroom. Your scholarship is aimed at students who have had a difficult diet in their life and who need financial assistance to realize their individual dreams. By being aware of the guidelines and expectations of the scholarship, the author will be able to better validate the qualifications u his students to receive it. The Prince really demonstrated a growth mindset, and he inspired his peers to adopt that valuable perspective too. In this example, the author (teacher) simply states who they are recommending which scholarship and the nature and duration of their relationship with the candidate. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any questions you may not have, and let me know if I can provide any additional information in support of this deserving student. He has this combination of a positive attitude and the belief that he can always improve that is rare in a student of the medium education, but not for the learning process. Example # 1 dear dear Commission, I want to recommend Angela Burgsette for the FNSaan study scholarship program. Please do not hesitate to contact me with any other questions in Charlesmingus@gmail.com. I'm sure Jan will continue to do big and creative things in her future. Sincerely, _____ Frederick McKinsley Here, the author concludes his letter with a positive note and offers a clear invitation to a subsequent communication. Last year she wrote a story article on the Spanish Renaissance that was one of the most impressive writing pieces that I have ever encountered in my 23 years of teaching. This sample has a counselor writing on behalf of a student who has special financial needs. I am confident that you will continue to demonstrate the same commitment and diligence in everything you do. Paragraph # 2 Having expressed that the student is a suitable candidate in the previous paragraph, the author must now use concrete examples to support his evaluation. However, depending on the criteria of scholarship, an employer or athletic coach may also be an appropriate, or necessary choice. As a student, Francesca demonstrated a love for learning and the level of commitment to succeed in college and albert. Depending on the number of examples that the author is able to use, this paragraph can be run from 3 to 5 phrases in length. You can contact me at Helenb@school.com.
